Letter Confirmation of Exclusive Distribution Rights

Dear Mr. Ratnikov Aleksey,

We are pleased to confirm formally that Alkana Medical LLC has been granted the exclusive distribution rights for the medical product Hebermin within the Russian Federation. This exclusive partnership is established under the terms of the contract previously concluded between Centro de Ingeniería Genética y Biotecnología (CIGB) — Heber Biotec S.A. the official rights holder of Hebermin (company representing the interests of CIGB companies abroad), and LLC Alkana Medical.

Based on the concluded agreement, LLC Alkana Medical:

- It is hereby designated as the exclusive distributor of Hebermin within the Russian Federation and holds all associated distribution rights as per our agreement, effective until 31 December 2025.

• It is authorized on exclusive basis to import Hebermin into the Russian Federation, adhering to all relevant regulations and standards to ensure compliance with Russian Federation laws.

- Shall possess the exclusive right to market and sell Hebermin across the Russian Federation. This also includes the right to take legal action to prevent unauthorized selling of Hebermin within the Russian Federation by third parties.
- It is granted exclusive rights to use the "Hebermin" and "Эбермин" trademarks in the Russian Federation. This includes enforcing rights against unauthorized use of these trademarks by third parties.
- It is granted right to enforce the exclusive distribution rights by initiating legal proceedings against any entities involved in the unauthorized sale, distribution, or advertising of Hebermin within the Russian time to maintain the exclusivity granted under this agreement.

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Jorge Valdés Hernández
Deputy General Director
